

Role Profile

Job Title: Jnr Storyboard Revisionist for Shaun the Sheep project
Department: Production
Contract Dates 1st January 2024- 2nd August 2024

An exciting opportunity to be a pivotal role in Aardman's latest Shaun the Sheep Project. Based initially at Gas Ferry role with relocation to Aztec West in the spring. The role is full time from end of January 24.

Main purpose of the role: To work with the Story Director, Series Director and Storyboard Artist to do revisions and clean up on storyboards for Animatics.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- To plan shots from a final script under the supervision of the storyboard artist and Story Director and Series Director.
 - To visualise & conceptualise the story – utilising different angles whilst maintaining continuity of production design
 - To write & draw visual gags suitable for children's television
 - To be aware of the constraints of the project parameters with sets and characters
 - To maintain continuity between shots
 - To carry out clean-up duties
 - To prepare and revise storyboards for animatic edits
 - To observe the provision of the health & safety at work & data protection acts.
 - Any other activities relevant to the post.
-

Responsible to: Series Director, Storyboard Artist, Production Manager & Producer

Person Specification:

- Must have artistic vision & skills
- Basic computer literacy with familiarity with storyboard software particularly Toonboom Storyboard Pro and Photoshop essential.
- Must be able to follow directions & complete tasks independently & as part of a team