

Role Profile

Job Title : Trainee Junior VFX Artist
Department : CGI Department. Gas Ferry Road Studio

Main purpose of the role:

The CGI department is involved in the production of commercials, short films, broadcast and other longer formats.

VFX Artists work across all stages of a production but specialise in cleaning and assembling elements to ensure a high-quality image.

Duties and Responsibilities:

This is a summary and is not intended to be exhaustive

Primary Skills:

- To provide clean-up, roto work
- To assist with high end compositing of CG, stopframe and Live Action work
- To become proficient with 2D and 3D tracking
- To work closely with their supervisor
- To ensure the correct organisation of projects and to assist with orderly archiving.
- To use downtime to work towards goals set by line manager.
- To develop and maintain a professional level of ability with secondary skills.
- To attend training courses and seminars as appropriate.
- To observe the Health and Safety at Work Act.

Secondary Skills:

- Ability with Photoshop (other Adobe products also desirable)
- To provide 2d artwork when required
- To acquire a good understanding of the stopframe and cg process
- To provide secondary animation and VFX elements if required

Person Specification:

- An artistic eye is essential
- Good communication skills
- Demonstrates positive attitude to work and strives to reach the highest standards
- Takes responsibility for work and shows attention to detail
- Keen to develop new skills
- Highly self-motivated
- Team player

- Has the ability to be directed
- Able to work effectively under pressure

Responsible to: Head of CGI, Head of Post, VFX Supervisor

Specific Functional Contacts: CGI dept, Producers, Directors

BT